Adelaide Film Festival 2009 call for entries

OPENS: Monday 19 May 2008

ENTRY DEADLINE: Friday 17 October 2008

The acclaimed biennial Adelaide Film Festival is one of the youngest but most dynamic and innovative film festivals in the world, with a program including special events, live performance and the premiere of films commissioned by the Adelaide Film Festival Investment Fund.

The Adelaide Film Festival 2009 is calling for submissions of feature films, documentaries and shorts made in Australia and internationally, completed after February 2007. All genres of contemporary screen culture are welcomed including drama, documentary, experimental, new media, and animation.

The deadline for both feature films and short films submissions is Friday 17 October 2008.
